PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, it is necessary for a nation to have a foundation of enlightened people who cooperate with the men of science who minister to people in pain and sickness; and

WHEREAS, the National Chiropractic Association and its affiliate the South Dakota Chiropractic Association have designated the week of May 1st to the 7th, 1952 as National Correct Posture Week; and

WHEREAS, these named associations are endeavoring to educate the public to the value of proper posture and to develop a national consciousness of this important problem; and

WHEREAS, proper posture is one of the greatest contributing factors to healthful living and everyday living enjoyment.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Sigurd Anderson, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of May 1 to 7, 1952, as and urge all South Dakotans to cooperate with the National Chiropractic Association and the South Dakota Chiropractic Association in an educational program to make people aware of the benefits of correct posture to our public health standards.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 29th day of April, 1952.
